Why we want you

Cycling UK inspires and helps people to cycle and keep cycling. We want to support you to create local environments that enable more people to cycle. Regional Coordinators are crucial for lubricating the chain links of our grassroots campaigns network.

What you will be doing

- Keeping an overview of what Local Representatives are doing in your 'patch'
- Assigning Local Representatives to hubs and being their primary point of contact
- Ensuring that questions get answered - linking campaigners together as necessary
- Flagging up issues that require Cycling UK Campaigns Team staff intervention
- Identifying Local Representatives with particular skills/experience
- Identifying potential training/development issues

The skills you need

- Enthusiasm to improve cycling in your regional patch
- Promoting collaboration and working together, without taking control
- Interpersonal skills to build and maintain relationships with Local Representatives
- The ability to give and receive constructive feedback
- Access to emails and the internet

What's in it for you

- The chance to make a positive change in your regional patch
- Have a hand in developing and improving Cycling UK's Campaign reach
- Support from Cycling UK Campaigns Team staff
- The opportunity to share your knowledge and experience with others
