Why we want you

Cycling UK inspires and helps people to cycle and keep cycling. We believe that cycling is more than just transport; it makes you feel good, gives you a sense of freedom and creates a better environment for everyone.

Ride Support Volunteers offer people assistance to enable them to ride in a group or take part in cycle activity.

What you will be doing

- Working with the Ride Leader to assess the ability of the group and who would benefit from extra support
- Helping to develop riders' cycling skills, offer regular feedback and help and build confidence
- Welcoming and registering riders and create a friendly and inclusive atmosphere

The skills you need

- A confident cyclist with interest in supporting others to cycle
- Friendly, welcoming and encouraging attitude
- Sensitive to others' needs i.e. awareness when attendees are tired or need a break

What's in it for you

- Skills development including coaching and communication skills
- A chance to meet new people, socialise with other volunteers and be part of a team
- Satisfaction of increasing health and wellbeing of your local community and supporting Cycling UK's mission of enabling millions more people to cycle
